EXPLANATION OF HOW THE VARIOUS RETAIL SCHEDULES WERE USED

Retail Schedule—Form 9.—This form was used to canvass all retail outlets doing a business of less than $60,000 a year (except automobile sales agencies) in cities having 10,000 inhabitants or more.

General Retail Schedule—Form 13.—This schedule was known as the "long form schedule" and asked for information on commodity sales. It was used to canvass all retail establishments (except food, drug stores, and automobile and accessories establishments) in cities having 10,000 inhabitants or more which did a business of $60,000 a year or more.

Grocery, Delicatessen, Confectionery, and Other Food Stores Schedule—Form 11.—This schedule was used to canvass all retail food outlets in cities having 10,000 inhabitants or more which did a business of $60,000 a year or more. In addition to having the standard inquiries used on all schedules it called for details in regard to commodity sales.

Drug Stores—Form 12.—This schedule was used to canvass all retail drug stores in cities having 10,000 inhabitants or more which did a business of $60,000 a year or more.

Automobile Schedule—Form 22.—Reports were secured on this form for all retail establishments engaged in the sale of new and used automobiles and also for establishments doing a business of $60,000 or more engaged in the sale of tires and tubes, batteries, automobile parts and accessories, automobile service and repair shops, automobile accessories, and gasoline and oil.

Combined Retail and Wholesale Schedule—Form 14. This form was used to canvass all retail and wholesale establishments in places having less than 10,000 inhabitants.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING REPORTS

Scope of the census.—All retail and wholesale store restaurants, automobile repair slops, and other distributing agencies are required by an act of Congress approved June I 1929, to furnish reports for this census. Form 14 is to be use indicate particular and the carried and the carried and the cases of establishments to be included in the census are retail stores, wholesale stores, gain elevators, lumber particular districtions and the carried and the c

Manufacturing assishishments which also operate retail or wholesale distributing outliets—In many instances manufacturing establishments, in addition to manufacturing their their products, and frequently operate retail and wholesale storm. Separate reports must be secured for each distinct, callet you though this is established merely for selling the

the main, self-explanators. Every inquiry appropriate to the particular business canvaced must be answered, using approximations in case book figures are not available. Every judgicy on the schedule must be answered. If any tiem is not applicable to a particular establishment, laser a dash ——, in the space provided for the answer to show

Inquiry 10—Sales of merchandise and products—Total receipts for the year skundthe reported. Commission merchants and othera a bling on a commission basis should reported the receipt of the commission of the commission received products and receipt on the receipt the amounts received to the products and for members and the value of material or supplies, grapelyes, etc., purchased for members.

inquiry 11—Repair and service operations.—Establishments which are engaged solely in repair and service work (except the repairing and servicing of automobiles and servicing of automobiles.

should be answered by establishments engaged in selling commodities, but which incidentally do repair or service work. Among others might be mentioned the following: Shoe repairing done by shoe stores; repair departments of jewelry stores;

beauty stops operated by department across. Like in for Inquirt E.—Farm preducts bought on the late in for Early products of the late of the late of the control buyers of farm preducts, whether working on a salary commission base or buying the products curright. Cooperatives should include sale

Inquiry 13—Meat animals slaughtered.—Many retail stores in small towns and cities slaughter meat animals or have them slaughtered by others. The total number of animals so claughtered represents a very considerable item. In some cases slaughtering is done by the concern either on its own premises or cheecker; in other cases the store or firm hires

In order to make certain of a complete net report of this business it is necessary to ascertain the numbers of animals claughtered in each slaughtering establishment (whethers retail butten, custom abattoir, or municipal abattoir), as in 13-a. Report outside slaughterings in 13-b so as to make sure they are not included in 13-a.

Animals shoughtered at custom or municipal shoughterhouses or abatteris should not be reported in 13-a by the firms for which they are shoughtered; they should be reported there by the shoughterhouses or abatteris, and the enumerator must visit all such places and accure reports therefrom.

Inquiry 14—Restaurant operations—All restaurants and dising rooms operated by the hole owners) must answer this inquiry. No reports are required for buarding houses; clubs; school, store, of factory hundrons operated for pupils or employees; nor far dising carn or dising rooms on beats. Suda fountians and refreshment and asserting lunches but not operated as restaurants about not answer Inquiry 18 but must furnish reports for the census
